

Domenic Delmonico

Domenic Delmonico is the Acting Executive Director of the Integra Community Care Network, a newly formed ACO, and the Senior Vice President for Managed Care Contracting and Network Development at Care New England (CNE), a four hospital system headquartered in Providence, Rhode Island. In addition to overseeing the development of the ACO, Mr. Delmonico is responsible for all insurer relationships with CNE, for the successful development of CMMI opportunities and creative new care and payment arrangements. He oversees the system's employee health and wellness program. CNE was recently awarded the Healthiest Employer in Rhode Island distinction by the Providence Business News. Mr. Delmonico is also a lobbyist for health care matters with the Rhode Island General Assembly. He is a Bronze, Silver and Gold award recipient from HFMA, is an editor for the HFM periodical and has earned both fellowship and certified managed care professional designations. Mr. Delmonico also earned the AHA Health Care Transformation fellowship and was awarded the RI Youth Soccer Coach of the Year distinction.