

James Dunlop

James Dunlop has served as EVP Finance & CFO of the System since 2008. He has been in the healthcare field since 1996 and previously served as the VP Finance/Corporate Controller of the System from 2001-2008. Prior to that he served as the Director of Finance for the System's Northtowns Acute Care facilities (Sisters Hospital, St. Joseph Hospital, Kenmore Mercy Hospital), Controller for Sisters of Charity and St. Joseph Hospitals, and Director of Reimbursement for Sisters of Charity Hospital.

Prior to his tenure with the System, Mr. Dunlop served as a health care consultant/auditor for Ernst and Young, LLP. Mr. Dunlop is a Certified Public Accountant and is a member of the Western New York HFMA. He earned his MFA with a dual concentration in Health Care Systems Management and Accounting from the University at Buffalo and his B.A. with a dual concentration in Economics/Public Policy from the University of Rochester.

Mr. Dunlop currently serves on the boards of Hilbert College and Catholic Health while having previously served on the board of Mid-Erie Counseling and Treatment Services, a leading local provider of behavioral health services. He was one of 12 healthcare executives, age 40 and under, selected for Modern Healthcare's "Up and Comers" honor in 2008 and was also named to Business First's Forth Under 40 list for his professional success and community involvement in addition to receiving CFO of the Year honors from Business First in the Nonprofit category in 2009.