

Joan Brennan, DNP, RN, CPPS

Joan is vice president of Quality and Performance Excellence at AtlantiCare, a 2009 Baldrige Award winner, which is comprised of AtlantiCare Regional Health Services including AtlantiCare Regional Medical Center with three locations, ambulatory services and AtlantiCare Physician Group; and AtlantiCare Health Solutions, an accountable care organization. She provides executive leadership for quality, safety and performance initiatives ranging throughout the healthcare system that includes more than 5,000 employees and 700 physicians and provides services throughout southern New Jersey.

Joan spent eight years supporting Quality New Jersey's performance excellence process and is a 2013 Examiner for the Malcolm Baldrige Quality Award. She has lectured nationally and internationally about AtlantiCare's best quality practices.

Joan was an AHA/HRET Patient Safety Leadership Fellow class 3. Joan received her Doctorate of Nursing Practice from University of Medicine and Dentistry. She is certified by the Certification Board for Professionals in Patient Safety as a Certified Professional in Patient Safety (CPPS). Joan is a part-time faculty member for the Rutgers University School of Nursing Doctoral program. Joan has been an active member of the Partnership for Care Transformation™ (PACT) Implementation Collaborative with Premier through AtlantiCare's development of its accountable care organization.