

Vance Jackson, FACHE

Vance joined Hancock County Health System, a rural integrated health system in Northern Iowa as the CEO in June 2006. He also holds the position of Vice President in Mercy Health Network - North Iowa. Mr. Jackson has led the Network's efforts to improve coordination of care to reduce readmissions and develop a multi-disciplinary, integrated approach to improving cardiac and stroke care to North Iowa residents.

Mr. Jackson has worked in the healthcare leadership for more than 28 years. He earned his Bachelor of Science degree in Management and a Master of Science degree in Management and Quantitative Analysis from Wayland Baptist University. He completed a Healthcare Executive Fellowship at the Kellogg Graduate School of Management at Northwestern University and the AHA Healthcare System Transformational Fellowship. Mr. Jackson is a Distinguished Fellow of the American College of Medical Quality and is Board Certified and a Fellow of The American College of Healthcare Executives and the American College of Medical Practice Executives.