

CDI Guide to Patient Safety

Hospital _____

Unit _____

1. Do you have a well-functioning team (or work group) focusing on CDI prevention?
 Yes No
2. Do you have a project manager with dedicated time to coordinate your CDI prevention activities?
 Yes No
3. Do you have an effective physician champion for your CDI prevention activities?
 Yes No
4. Is senior leadership supportive of CDI prevention activities?
 Yes No
5. Do you routinely collect CDI-related data (e.g., incidence, prevalence, compliance with prevention practices, etc.) in the unit(s) or populations in which you are intervening to reduce infection?
 Yes No
6. Do you routinely feed back CDI-related data to frontline staff and physicians (e.g. incidence, prevalence, compliance with prevention practices, etc.)?
 Yes No
7. Is staff empowered to speak up and remind colleagues about proper hand hygiene and personal protective equipment use?
 Yes No
8. Do you conduct audits and provide feedback on the effectiveness of environmental cleaning?
 Yes No
9. Do you have an antibiotic stewardship team that includes at least one physician and one pharmacist?
 Yes No
10. Does your laboratory reject formed stools if submitted for CDI testing?
 Yes No
11. Are clinicians educated as to when to order CDI testing?
 Yes No